

MONDAY 6 AUGUST 2018

08:00 – 09:00	REGISTRATION (FOYER) COFFEE AND TEA
09:00 – 09:10	WELCOME – CONFERENCE THEATRE PROFESSOR AVINASH GOVINDJEE EXECUTIVE DEAN, FACULTY OF LAW, NELSON MANDELA UNIVERSITY
09:10 – 09:15	GENERAL INFORMATION
SESSION CHAIR	PROF ELMARIE KNOETZE (NELSON MANDELA UNIVERSITY)
09:15 – 09:35	Prof Daleen Millard (University of Johannesburg) Where is the love? A critical look at Komape and Others v Minister of Basic Education (1416/2015) [2018] ZALMPPHC 18 (23 April 2018)
09:35 – 09:55	Dr Emile Zitzke (University of the Witwatersrand) The Esidimeni tragedy: between constitutional damages, personal accountability, and social justice
09:55 – 10:15	Mr Siraaj Khan Does South African Law have an adequate response to baby swapping cases?
10:15 – 10:35	Prof Graham Glover (Rhodes University) Breach in haste; repent at leisure?
10:35 – 10:50	Q&A
10:50– 11:15	TEA AND COFFEE - FOYER
SESSION CHAIR	PROF DALEEN MILLARD (UNIVERSITY OF JOHANNESBURG)
11:15 – 11:35	Prof Enyinna Nwauche (Rhodes University) The right to intellectual property and South Africa's new intellectual property policy: appropriate balance between the public and private Interest

11:35 – 11:55	Prof Tanya Woker (University of KwaZulu-Natal) Consumer protection; 10 years on, what progress has been made?
11:55 – 12:15	Ms Busi Kgori (University of Johannesburg) Decolonising legal education for social justice
12:15 – 12:30	Q&amp;A
12:30 – 14:00	LUNCH
SESSION CHAIR	PROF GRAHAM GLOVER (RHODES UNIVERSITY)
14:00 – 14:20	Prof Monray Botha (University of Pretoria) The long walk to economic freedom: the plight of workers in the advancement of economic and participation rights
14:20 – 14:40	Mrs Tronel Joubert (University of Pretoria) In search of social justice for employees in company law: Did employees' really triumph during the introduction of the business rescue proceedings in the 2008-Companies Act?
14:40 – 15:00	Prof Howard Chitimira Howard, Ms Sharon Munedzi (LLM candidate) and Ms Menelisi Ncube, LLM candidate) (North-West University) Towards the promotion of financial inclusion for the poor, vulnerable and low income earners in South Africa
15:00 – 15:15	Q&amp;A
15:15	TEA AND COFFEE – FOYER

TUESDAY 7 AUGUST 2018

08:30 – 09:00	COFFEE AND TEA FOYER
SESSION CHAIR	DR RAZAANA DENSON (NELSON MANDELA UNIVERSITY)
09:00 –09:20	Mrs Yvette Joubert (University of Johannesburg) Virtual courts – how far are we from this reality? Looking at trends in the English justice system for clues of what lies ahead
09:20 – 09:40	Ms Helen Kruise (Rhodes University) Reforming the public through the private: the legal practitioner’s role and the contract of mandate
09:40 – 10:00	Dr Nkanyiso Sibanda (University of the Western Cape) Misconstruction of lobola as forming a contract contributing to a negative perception of an otherwise noble customary practice
10:00 -10:20	Dr Precious Ndlovu (University of the Western Cape) Should customary law delicts influence the general principles of delictual liability under common law?
10:20 – 10:35	Q&A
10:35 – 11:00	TEA AND COFFEE – FOYER
SESSION CHAIR	PROF MONRAY BOTHA (UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA)
11:00 – 11:20	Dr Razaana Denson (Nelson Mandela University) The bastardization of Islamic law by the South African Courts
11:20-11:40	Dr Ashraf Booley (University of the Western Cape) Women’s right in Tunisia: reforming the Code of Personal Status of 1956

11:40 -12:00	Dr Joanna Botha and Prof André Mukheibir (Nelson Mandela University) Remedies for hate speech – statutory law vs common law
12:00 – 12:15	Q&amp;A
12:15	CONFERENCE CLOSURE